

EDUCATIONUSA PRE-DEPARTURE ORIENTATION SERIES

Campus Life and American Culture

Charles Honstra (Moderator)

Regional Education Advising Coordinator (REAC) | EducationUSA
Mainland Southeast Asia & China, Australia, New Zealand, and Samoa
U.S. Department of State Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs Program

Charles Hornstra is the EducationUSA Regional Education Advising Coordinator (REAC) for Mainland Southeast Asia & China, Australia, New Zealand, and Samoa. Charles oversees EducationUSA coordination in the region as it relates to center operations and adviser support. REAC Charles works in close consultation with U.S. Embassies/Consulates in the region, EducationUSA advisers, and the U.S. higher education community.

Christopher Segur

Senior Assistant Director of Admissions & Coordinator of International
Recruitment Office of Admissions, Allegheny College

Chris Segur is the Coordinator of International Recruitment at Allegheny College, a role in which he collaborates intently with prospective students, their families, high school counselors, and other professionals within the international education community, including those at EducationUSA. Chris works closely with the Office of International Education at Allegheny College to support its international student orientation and Culture 2 Culture Peer Mentoring Program. Also, as a former ESL instructor, Chris has spent many years working with international students in the U.S., helping them prepare for the rigors of academic life at American colleges and universities.

Eric Galligan

Senior International Admissions Counselor
Kent State University

Eric Galligan is a Senior International Admissions Counselor at Kent State University working specifically with recruitment in SE Asia and with the international undergraduate admissions process. Eric works closely with offices across the university in advising students on many facets of university life in the US. In his previous position, Eric worked in a non-profit study abroad organization assisting students from Asia studying in the U.S. on short-term programs, a role which allowed him to collaborate with offices in universities across the U.S. in support of his students.

Krittaya Pichitnapakul

Director of International Admission
University of San Francisco

Krittaya got her bachelor's degree at the University of San Francisco. She completed a double major in Information technology and Entrepreneurship & Innovation from University of San Francisco with Cum Laude in 1999. Since 2005, Krittaya has been working with the University of San Francisco first as recruiter and alumni relation staff, and then as Director of The USF Thailand representative office. Recently in 2018, she was additionally appointed as Director of International Admission for the University. She travels regularly to Vietnam, Thailand, Myanmar, South Korea and Taiwan to recruit students and represent the interests of the University.